

HOUSE CONCERTS, ARE THEY FOR YOU?

Questionnaire

What is a House Concert?

It's an invitation-only concert in someone's home, presented by a host who does not profit from the event. House concerts create a wonderful opportunity for music fans to experience these great artists in a way they never dreamed of. For less than you'd pay at your multiplex, you and your friends can organize personal concerts you'll remember for a lifetime.

Also, house concerts are usually...

Held indoors and on weekends, or weekdays host/artist choice

Attended by 20-50 people

Paid for by a $10-20 donation per guest (for the performer)

Known to include light snacks, beverages or a pot-luck dinner

Attended by the host's friends, neighbors, co-workers, church members, and maybe a few fans of the artist

Attended by a 25-60 and beyond age group

Performed by solo, duos and small groups

Performed with little to no amplification

Very intimate - the audiences sit close and are attentive

Usually performed in 2, 40-minute sets with a 20-minute break

Stronger for artist's merchandise sales than traditional venues

Booked with and without a financial guarantees (can vary by host and by artist)

Known to house and feed the artist for the night
